CWI-101-001W Online Using Design Thinking to Build a Life You Love Many of us want to be creative and often work to find creative outlets, but most people have yet to examine how to use the creative process purposefully. This course will focus on applying design thinking to harness our creativity and make it part of a process we can use to achieve important things and tackle challenges. Design thinking is-as discussed in the book Designing Your Life: How to Live a Well-Lived, Joyful Life-a method of solving difficult and complex problems through thinking creatively and testing ideas. We will focus on how to use design thinking to build possibilities for your future education, career, and life. ~ NOTE: Online sections of CWI are designed for students in fully online degrees. Students who are taking any face-to-face classes should select a face-to-face or hybrid section of CWI.	CWI: Build a Life You Love Online	3 ONL	27	Lecture Online 28	Fisher, Brenda brendafisher@cw.edu	8/22/22	12/17/22

CWI-101-002H Nampa Campus This course explores the complicated relationship between humans and their diet, using Michael Pollan's The Omnivore's Dilemma as a guide. In 21st century America, we have nearly limitless choices about what to eat. But those choices come with hidden costs. What we choose to eat affects everything from our personal physical and mental health to our communities to the global environment. Our diet may reflect deeply held ethical or religious beliefs. It may indicate our economic status or our cultural background. Or it may represent a mindful choice designed to fuel a healthy lifestyle. In this course, we will learn where our food comes from, how diet impacts our health, and what our individual diet choices mean within a global context. We will also learn practical tools and strategies to promote success in college and in life. ~ Hybrid course - has an online component	CWI: You Are What You Eat Aspen Classroom Building	3 101	Thu 18	Lecture Hybrid 28	Brown, Karen karenbrown@cw.edu	8/22/22 11:30 AM	12/17/22 12:45 PM

CWI-101-005H Nampa Campus Myths and Legends of the Spanish World In this class we will discuss a variety of Spanish Myths and Legends. Does La Llorona live in the water ready to gobble up unsuspecting children? Will the Chupacabra ever be caught? What are the origins of these and other legends and what can we learn about the cultural/historical context in which they originated? How do they compare with other legends we are familiar with? In this course we will investigate legends and the countries where they first appeared, and develop a variety of academic skills to allow us to think critically about the connection between history, culture, and literature. Format will include reading, writing, discussion, and presentations. ~ Hybrid course: has an online component	CWI: Myths/Legends Span World Academic Building	3 218	Tue 18	Lecture Hybrid 28	Hart, Brent brenthart@cw.edu	8/22/22 2:30 PM	12/17/22 3:45 PM

The Dead and the Undead Do you love The Walking Dead? Do you know how you would survive a zombie apocalypse? Are you obsessed with Dracula or Twilight? Have you ever thought about why we love zombies and vampires? This course will examine our fascination with zombies and vampires and what that reveals about our culture and ourselves. We will also look at traditions and beliefs surrounding death, particularly in American culture, but also throughout the world. Examining our cultural beliefs about death and our fascination with the undead will lead to examining other parts of our culture through a more critical lens, which will benefit students in all parts of their education, regardless of their primary area of study. This course will culminate in students showcasing analysis and research on a zombie specific area of interest. ~ NOTE: Online sections of CWI are designed for students in fully online degrees. Media and Self: Shaping Our Beliefs Media sources are central to culture and contribute daily to our communication, socialization, and core beliefs. The "ubiquitous assimilation" of information characterizes the 21st Century. Our beliefs about gender, race, and the consumption of good from food to clothing to dwellings are influenced by a constant stream of media messages, oftentimes without our conscious awareness. In this course, we will explore these messages and their desired effects and develop ways to discern truth from propaganda, effectively analyze media messages for function, intent and bias, and understand how this information contributes meaning to the lives of individuals and to society as a whole. ~ NOTE: This section is designed for ELL (English Language Learner) students.

Why is it so hard to breathe at the top of Mt. Everest and why can't a scuba diver race to the surface from 90 feet underwater? We will explore those topics as well as the extreme survival conditions in the desert and out at sea. How does the human body adapt physiologically to maintain homeostasis when we are challenged to survive? Similarly, how can you survive and thrive as a college student? CWI-101-026H Ada County Center Most Americans, by the time they're eighteen, have watched more than a thousand movies. They can quote lines from Batman Returns and sing the entire sound track from Frozen. But do movies simply reflect our culture, or are they much more powerful, influencing the way we think, the choices we make, and how other people treat us? The purpose of this class is to examine these questions using a variety of contemporary American films, both narrative and documentary, as records of social attitudes and as a means for self-reflection and decision-making. ~ Hybrid course - has an online component	CWI: Movies and Culture Pintail Building	3 1206	F 11	Lecture Hybrid 28	McMorow, Sharon sharonmcmorrow@cw.edu	8/22/22 11:30 AM	12/17/22 12:45 PM

CWI-101-027 Ada County Center In 1957, Jack Kerouac published his novel On the Road and the "Beat Generation" was officially born in the public consciousness. Part road adventure novel, part epic poem, artistic treatise and sutra, On the Road showcased the attitudes and lifestyle of a counter-cultural movement that placed literary expression, jazz improvisation, mind expansion, individual freedom, a sense of sacred love, and the notion of the Buddhist bodhisattva at its ideological core. Drawing inspiration from diverse sources such as Walt Whitman, Miles Davis, and founder of the San Francisco Zen Center, D.T Suzuki, the Beat Literary movement changed the way writers approached literature, and changed the way a large portion of America viewed American life in the middle of the 20th Century. Through writing, meditation, chanting, Tai chi practice, jazz, and academic study of Beat Writers such as Jack Kerouac, Allen Ginsberg, Diane di Prima, Gary Snyder, Phillip Whalen, and Anne Waldman, as well as the writing of Zen Masters, Omori Sogen and D.T. CWI-101-028R Online Transformative Storytelling: Shift Your World View Angela Davis said, "You have to act as if it were possible to radically transform the world. And you have to do it all the time." What does it mean to transform the world? It's an idea you'll hear as you begin your college journey, and this class will examine what that transformation can look like. We'll start building our classroom community by telling the stories of ourselves and our people; we will connect with each other by listening, reflecting, and thinking critically about the stories we tell ourselves and the world around us. Students will share their voices through oral storytelling and creative writing, and examine what the world can look like when it's rooted in interdependence, resilience, and regeneration. ~ Remote: Courses are offered entirely online through technology with designated meeting times. Idaho is considered the "whitewater playground" for river enthusiasts. The state boasts numerous whitewater river trips that are easily accessible for day or multiday trips. River adventures will provide an experience you will never forget. How you remember the trip completely depends on your planning, preparedness and appreciating the force of Mother Nature. Those who take the time to understand, respect and utilize the energy of the river will undoubtedly return time and again to create memories that last a lifetime. This course will compare the enthusiasm of whitewater rafting to the enthusiasm of higher education learning. Both fields require extensive research, planning, goal setting, mentoring, first-hand experience, support and navigation to have a positive, successful experience. Each concept of whitewater rafting preparation will parallel a concept of preparing for and being successful in college ~ Hybrid course - has an online component

You Are What You Eat: Exploring Our Relationships with Food This course explores the complicated relationship between humans and their diet, using Michael Pollan's The Omnivore's Dilemma as a guide. In 21st century America, we have nearly limitless choices about what to eat. But those choices come with hidden costs. What we choose to eat affects everything from our personal physical and mental health to our communities to the global environment. Our diet may reflect deeply held ethical or religious beliefs. It may indicate our economic status or our cultural background. Or it may represent a mindful choice designed to fuel a healthy lifestyle. In this course, we will learn where our food comes from, how diet impacts our health, and what our individual diet choices mean within a global context. We will also learn practical tools and strategies to promote success in college and in life. ~ Hybrid course - has an online component	$15.00

Really Good Bad Guys From the beginning of western theatre, we see characters who think they are doing the right thing, but as an audience we can see their actions as evil or treacherous. In this CWID class students will look at plays and literature showcasing protagonists with fatal, tragic flaws that turn "good guys" into "bad guys." We will be exploring how the ideas of a hero/antihero in theatre and in modern entertainment has shifted and how our own perceptions of what a protagonist should be has changed drastically in the last one hundred years. While learning about how the role and expectations of a hero have changed over time, students will also be learning strategies for being successful learners in college and beyond. ~ NOTE: Online sections of CWI are designed for students in fully online degrees. Students who are taking any face-to-face classes should select a face-to-face or hybrid section of CWI.	$30.00

Movies and Documentaries that Move Us Do you like films and documentaries that are inspiring, uplifting, and intriguing? Do you wonder whether they can move people to action? The classroom, with all its inherent drama, conflict, and diversity, has provided the perfect setting for many books and movies in our culture. In this course we'll explore how education portrayed in cinema and literature compares to the real world, and we'll have some fun along the way. Additionally, we'll discuss how adults learn, in both a traditional and online environment. Students completing this course will be better prepared to succeed in college and in life. Whether you are just curious about how movies and documentaries influence our lives or perhaps you are considering a career in teaching, join us to uncover the tips and tricks to achievement in school, and beyond. ~ NOTE: Online sections of CWI are designed for students in fully online degrees. Modern Romance Find love and happiness in this class! In our modern world you need to have skills with mobile technology and the internet along with the communication tools to find your true love and win their heart. In this class we will develop the written and verbal communication skills used in romance. In this course, we will learn to learn from current research and your personal experiences to explore how to search for love and keep building true love from your continued learning that will last after the in-love experience has run its course. Moreover, we will learn how to "fight fair" making cultural connections in relationship and how to solve the problem of getting over someone without losing your cool. The college years are when many people meet their significant other. Additionally, there is a necessity in college to make and develop relationships that will use the same type of tools (yet not so intense) as do romantic relationships. With this class you'll better understand all relationships in general and specifically LOVE. You will come away with a game plan for success! ~ Hybrid course - has an online component

Language and Identity How literate are you? What parts of your life does literacy affect? What role does a person's speech and writing play in first impressions and stereotypes? Does your lexicon determine whether or not you get a job? A date? Should it? What causes linguistic stereotypes, such as French being the language of love and German the language of war? These questions and more will be addressed through movies, social media and literature. We will explore how the basic building blocks of language affect communication and how language and culture impacts a person's identity and their perspective of the world. Students will learn how an awareness of language and identity can help them to better navigate and participate in a multilingual world. ~ Hybrid course - has an online component
