We can help with:

- Improve your reading skills
- Study for the GED
- Study for the Armed Services Vocational Aptitude Battery (ASVAB)
- Practice computer skills

We offer:

- Study on site with books and/or on the computer with assistance
- Study online at your pace – independent studies with teacher assistance
- Online classes - scheduled days/times
 - Independent study with teacher assistance
 - Teacher led instruction for English language learners

We can help you meet your goals!

STEP 1: Begin by taking reading and math placement tests and filling out registration paperwork

- Plan on 2 1/2 hours. Arrive at the start of a session to finish the process in one visit.
- To register outside of our library hours, please text Sherry at 208.598.8977 to make an appointment or email us for remote, online registration instructions

STEP 2: Meet with a teacher to develop a study plan.

STEP 3: Study.
