THE WRITING PROCESS

- Refer to “Writing a Personal Essay” Handout.

CHARACTERISTICS THAT WILL IMPROVE YOUR PAPER

- Use language that is direct, clear, and sounds like you. Avoid slang and overused expressions.
- Create a tone that shows confidence, but not arrogance; sincerity, not stuffiness.
- When appropriate, connect sentences with expressions like “then,” “in addition,” “finally,” “in contrast,” so that one idea seems to move logically into the next.

SELECTING A FORMAT FOR YOUR ESSAY

There is no one correct way to organize a personal essay. You might try using the following formats to get started, and then use your common sense to order your information logically.

Format 1

1. Past

- a. Relevant background information
- b. Reasons for attending/returning to school

2. Present

- a. College of Western Idaho progress
- b. Accomplishments while at College of Western Idaho (they might be accomplishments other than academic successes)

3. Future

- a. Plans and goals

Format 2

1. You, the person

- a. Family
- b. Personal values

2. You, the student

- a. Academic achievements (including grades)
- b. Other achievements while in school (jobs, organizations, teams)

3. You, the scholarship candidate

- a. Why you should be awarded a scholarship
- b. What you would do with the scholarship
- c. What are your goals?

BRAINSTORMING QUESTIONS

Write answers to these questions to get ideas for your personal essay.

1. What academic accomplishments are you proud of?
2. What other accomplishments are you proud of?
3. What are your personal strengths?
4. What positive changes have you made in your life?
5. Why did you come, or come back, to school?
6. What realistic goals have you set for yourself?
7. Where are you in reaching those goals?
8. What course of study have you set for yourself at CWI?
9. Why do you need a scholarship?
10. What would you do with a scholarship?
11. What are your achievements in college (despite obstacles, if relevant)?
12. What are your goals?
13. How will a scholarship help you attain those goals?

BRAINSTORMING WORKSHEET

One of the best methods of brainstorming is to begin with a grand list of potential topics and slowly let the best rise to the top. In order to generate a laundry list of important people, events, accomplishments and activities in your life, fill in the worksheet below.

If you were writing your autobiography right now, what would be five to ten events or things that would have to be included? It will be easiest to think over your life chronologically.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____
8. _____
9. _____
